MR. EMBRY DIES

After Lingered Illness--Was Sixty-Seven Years Of Age. Had Many Friends Here.

Wm. Embry died last Wednesday morning and the funeral was held from their apartment in the Hamman House on Chestnut street. Mr. Embry's death was caused from dropsy. He had been ill a long time. Just his wife and a step-daughter, Miss Minnie Snyder, survive him. Mr. Embry was a stone cutter by trade and had lived here about seventeen years.

He was well-liked in church and business circles of this city.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Farmer, pastor of the Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member.

Woodrow Wilson is Coming to Kentucky.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 19.—Dr. Woodrow Wilson, Governor-elect of New Jersey, has written to the Rev. Dr. Jesse R. Ziegler that he will be in Frankfort to attend the conference of governors. Dr. Wilson is a friend of Dr. Ziegler and will be his guest while he is in Frankfort. The attendance at the conference promises to be good. The fact that the meeting of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterways Association will be held in St. Louis the latter part of next week, just before the conference begins here, leads the local committees to believe that many Governors from Western States will come to Kentucky. Some fifteen Governors will attend the meeting in St. Louis next Friday and Saturday and most of them will come to Louisville on Sunday and to Frankfort Monday for the conference.

He Missed the Eclipse.

Jim Bivens, a Cloverport citizen, rested quietly in the Hawesville jail Wednesday night, the beauties of the moon eclipse being lost to him through a still fuller moon which he took on at Cannelton. On a modest plea of guilty he was fined $10 and the costs the next morning, he being the first victim caught by the local courts under the new law making it a penalty for drunkenness on a train or about the depot. The law was passed at the last session of the Legislature.—Hancock Clarion.

Mrs. Roff Improving.

Mrs. Wave Roff, who has been critically ill for several weeks, is somewhat improved, and her many friends are delighted to know she is being relieved of intense suffering. She has the services of Miss Chesneau, the trained nurse, and great improvement is expected in her condition.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to sincerely thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness during our recent sad bereavement. Mrs. Embry and Daughter.

Miss Dutschke Entertains.

Such a feast for young people has never been spread as was given at the home of Mr. Julius Dutschke in honor of his daughter, Miss Ida Dutschke, Sunday. Turkey, chicken, five kinds of cake and ice cream in abundance, with lots of other good things to eat, were served.

The guests were: Prof. McCoy, Dwight Randall, Misses Claudia Pate, Carrie Pate, Ella Smith and Mr. Hendry of Lodiburg.

M. F. SHARP

RE-ELECTED

National President Of American Society Of Equity.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—The election of officers completed the important work of the American Society of Equity which is meeting in convention here. The officers elected follow:

President, M. F. Sharp, Kentucky, re-elected; vice president, J. M. Woods, Ohio, director; C. W. Pierson, North Dakota; H. G. Tank, Wisconsin, and Louis Lockhart, Indiana. The secretary-treasurer will be elected by the directory, who will meet after the convention adjourns.

FROM BISHOP QUAYLE

The Thing For Any Man To Do, Finding Himself Anywhere Else, Is To Pack His Grip And Come To America.

The Christian cause in America was the topic of the Methodist preachers' meeting yesterday, and the chief speaker was Bishop Quayle, who lives, when at home, which he said was not often, in Oklahoma. The Bishop said he was a Manxman born.

"Presiding at a recent conference out West," said he, "one leader was a German, another was a Dane, a third was a Frenchman and a fourth was an Irishman, and I said that having so much good yeast from so many wheres we ought to be able to bake bread enough for the nations, good Christlike, honest weight bread."

"In spite of all its badness, America has become a world spiritual power," observed the Bishop, and then he added: "We are not in the business of making Methodists, desirable products as they are. We are making Americans, and you can't make a really valuable American unless you make him a Christ man. Methodism is merely the workshop."

So great was the enthusiasm and so vast the crowd that the conclusion was the singing of "America." The Oklahoma Bishop, a breeze from the West, kept the company in a roar twenty of the twenty-five minutes he had the platform.

"Christians must take America in hand and keep it from going to the devil," he said. "When they do so, then we must take the whole world, America included, to Christ. Nobody is to blame for having been born in the Island of Man, in Germany, in Ireland, but the thing for any man to do, finding himself there, is to pack his grip and come to America."

"Thomas Jefferson did not write the Declaration of Independence. It is a mistake to say he did. Jesus Christ wrote it. I preached so many times yesterday I cannot remember all the places or all I said. But wherever I preach, whether in New York or New Mexico, I find just folks. New Yorkers put on more style and use more big words than folks do out West, but we ought to quit fooling around about our State and our city and their problems and begin to fool with America. We ought not to talk Japanese even if we were born in Japan, or Spaniards if we were born in Spain, but all of us, the whole kit, ought to learn to speak Americanese. The sooner Greeks learn American and speak it the sooner Hungarians do the same, the better for them and for us."

"What a race we are making! I'd like to live 500 years to see what it will do. Wouldn't it be fun to be mixed up in such a fracas?"

Raised To One Hundred

Dollars Fine.

The practice of writing on newspapers and packages—imparting some information to relatives and friends on papers and parcels mailed them—has become so common with thoughtless and ignorant people that the $10 penalty of the post has been made $100 by the postal department and hereafter offenders will have to stand arrest and trial.

May Lose Both Eyes

As Result of Accident.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 15.—W. S. Guernsey, of Louisville, conductor on the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis Railroad, was accidentally shot by Louis Murphy while hunting in Davies county this afternoon, and as a result will probably lose the sight of both eyes. Guernsey was standing in front of Murphy when the latter fired at a covey of birds. The shot struck Guernsey in the face. He was brought to Owensboro and will be taken to Louisville in the morning, where an operation will be performed.

The Century in 1911.

The Century is to publish in 1911 a series of papers on "The Wives of the Caesars," by Guglielmo Ferrero, probably the most distinguished figure in historical writing in the world today. The series will begin with Livia, wife of Augustus; and all will treat of women who were related to the politics and social life of their epochs, and who took part in the strife in Rome between the old Puritanism and the Oriental civilization.

HERNDON-WALLER

Wedding Carried Out In Beautiful Appointments—Large Number Of Guests Present—Church Wedding.

Irvington, Nov. 21.—(Special.)—A large and fashionable audience filled the Irvington Baptist church to witness the marriage of Miss Evelyn Brashear Herndon and Mr. John Trice Waller, which was solemnized at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning and was one of the most beautiful and brilliant weddings of the season.

The church was tastefully decorated, quantities of palms, potted plants and honey suckles were grouped about the pulpit and choir platform and on the organ were large clusters of yellow chrysanthemums. The Mandolin Club were seated by a screen of green and potted plants. The Rev. J. T. Lewis was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Jno. R. Wimp, organist of the church, played the wedding music and the selections were particularly beautiful.

She was assisted by the mandolin club and the sextette which composed the following: Miss Ellen Munford, Mrs. L. B. Moreman, Miss Virginia Calloway and Mrs. W. J. Piggott. Mr. D. C. Heron and Mr. W. J. Piggott. In the bridal procession the Shirts Waist Girls came first and they were: Misses Mary Wrather, Nannie McGeehe, Claire Jolly, Mabel McGlothlin, Willa Drury, Reba Lewis, Eva McGlothlin and Nellie Smith; after which the maid of honor, Miss May Tydings and best man, Mr. Walter Trice preceded the bride and groom.

The ushers were Mr. Herschel Kirk and Mr. David Herndon. The only other attendants were the ribbon children, who were charming in their suits of white, Miss Helen Board and Master Fairleigh Herndon. Mr. and Mrs. Waller left at once for Hopkinsville, where they will be with his mother until the first of the year, when they will go to housekeeping on Virginia Ave.

BANDY COURT

Added to Irvington—One Hundred Lots Sold—Jas. S. Younger Draws Free Lot—Moorman and Dickerson Get Cash Prizes.

Irvington, Ky., Nov. 21.—(Special.)—The second lot sale which has been held in our town within the past month was a success both in attendance and in selling of the lots.

The Hardinsburg band boys were present and gave us the latest music. The band led the way and a crowd of people estimated at 1,000, followed to the Bandy Court, where the sale began.

One hundred lots were sold, averaging about $50 per lot. The entire sale was conducted just as advertised. The first cash prizes of $5 were drawn by Lewis Bennett Moorman and Mr. Dickerson, of Custer.

The second cash prize of $2.30 was drawn by Miss Eva McGlothlin, and Jim Younger, of Cloverport, was the lucky winner of the free lot.

Auctioneers: J. L. Engleheart, of Elizabethtown; Chas. Payne, of Owensboro, and D. W. Henry, blew their trumpets in the same old way.

The crowd dispersed well satisfied with the sale, and complimented Moorman & Akers in the way things were carried on.

A Bird.

A certain local real estate man has never been intoxicated nor in a state of near-piffication, but he has on stock a fund of anecdotes dealing with the vagaries of souses.

One of these has to do with two good fellows who went on a spree which terminated in their apartment where one of them speedily relapsed into a state of somnolency. While he was in this condition his waggish friend proceeded to lather his face liberally with glue. The practical joker then opened a feather-tick and shook the downy contents out over the physiognomy of his sleeping friend. Having done this, he turned up the gas in the room and himself went to sleep. A few hours later, the first sleeper awakened in a state of near-suffocation, and sat

MRS. WHEELER

Dies Saturday at Garfield--Funeral Held at Rome Sunday--Was Nearly 90 Years Old.

Mrs. Rhoda Wheeler died of heart failure and complication of diseases Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ramson Norton, of Garfield. She was past eighty-seven years of age, and was a remarkable woman. She was born in Perry county in 1823. During the last twelve years she lived with her daughter. Mrs. Wheeler was a Baptist but was reared by Methodist parents.

She leaves five children: J. J. Wheeler, North Dakota; J. C. Wheeler, Santa Fe, New Mexico; Mrs. Mattie DeWitt, Fort Calhoun, North Dakota; Dr. F. R. Wheeler, Manford, Okla.; and Mrs. Louise Norton, Garfield. Besides her own children she is survived by twenty-five grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

The funeral and interment took place at Rome, Ind., Sunday. It was attended by Mrs. Thursa Hall, Miss Mollie Gibson, Miss Annie Haynes, Iva Haynes, Lon Dutschke, Arthur Haynes, Finis Johnson, Levi Norton, Dudley Haynes, James Crist and Eugene Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. Ramson Norton.

up on the edge of the bed to gaze squarely into a mirror.

With a shriek of horror he buried his face in his arms and collapsed into the bed covering. "In h—I and a bird," he shouted in agonized tones, "in h—I and a bird."—"All Around the Town" Louisville Times.

Work On The Bridge.

The work on the bridge is progressing nicely. One tube is already set and concreted, the other is being put in and in a few days will be completed. It's a big job filling one of these tubes. It takes 53 loads of gravel and 200 sacks of cement.

New Rabbit Law.

Much misapprehension as to the game law passed by the last Legislature has arisen in this county and probably in many other counties, especially as to setting traps and snares for rabbits and other game. The act that passed was very brief and is as follows:

"That it shall be unlawful for any one to set a steel trap, deadfall or snare or to loose or hunt with a ferret upon the premises or property of another without first securing the written consent of the owner of the premises or property, and any one thus offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $5 or more than $25."

"Having in possession game caught, or set out in Section 1, shall be prima facie evidence of guilt as herein provided."

BIG SPRING.

Miss Ida Meador is visiting friends at Elizabethtown.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Scott and daughter, Miss Mary Elazor, spent a few days last week with relatives at Vine Grove.

J. D. Meador and son, Millward, attended the marriage of Miss Carrie Millward in Louisville Tuesday.

Mrs. Hugh Wright died Friday and was buried at New Salem.

Rev. Scott will preach at the Baptist church Saturday at 11 a. m., and Sunday at 3 p. m.

We regret that the stock law was not voted on in this precinct at the last election. We are glad that Hardin and Meade have taken the vote and it passed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Drury, of Bewleyville, passed through town Saturday enroute home. They had been up in Hardin county for several days. They attended the sale Mr. Kerfoot near St. John.

Miss Jessie Leever, of Irvington, took dinner at the hotel Friday.

M. G. Chaney, of Gulfport, Miss., representing the Gold Medal flour called on the merchants Friday.

Cecil Clarkson spent a few days in Louisville this week.

Mrs. J. H. Meador spent last week with Mrs. Dolph Richardson, near Rosetta.

LOWER PRICES

OF MEATS.

Dr. Wiley Says It's Merely a Deliberate Manipulation of the Market.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, pure food expert of the Department of Agriculture, is pessimistic about the outlook for lower prices in food supplies. Said he today when questioned in regard to the present fall in the wholesale quotations of beef and other meats:

"The interests which manipulated the prices upward have temporarily released their hold on our throats for the purpose of getting a fresh grip. This so-called reduction in price of meats is merely a deliberate manipulation of the market, just as the increase in prices was unjust, unreasonable and uncalled for by conditions prevailing throughout the country. The prices were fictitious when they reached the top notch because they were forced to that high level arbitrarily by the interests. The alleged reduction also is fictitious because it is not a reduction in fact, but mere market manipulation deliberately planned to meet the selfish ends of the interests who have dominated the markets for years."

"If you do not believe that the so-called reduction is fictitious go into the markets and try to buy a pound of beef. Developments will show that the interests are after some one. There may be some independent movement they hope to drive from cover or take into camp. The hands of the interests at our throats simply got tired of holding on. They have relaxed their holding temporarily so that they may get a better and fresher grip."

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson had this to say in regard to the announced reductions by the packers:

"The farmer with cattle on his hands must pay $35 a ton for his hay instead of $30, the price of a year ago, and rather than do this he is sending his cattle to market. This has caused a flood of cattle in the Chicago market and accounts for the sudden tumble in prices. This tumble is abnormal and will not be permanent. However, a plentiful corn crop and plenty of grain will enable the farmer to feed freely and we should get a lower level of prices. Lower prices are certain to come provided that somewhere between the farmer and the consumer there is no combination or agreement to keep the prices up."

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—Wholesale meat dealers declared today that there had been no decrease in the price of beef, and that there would not be any in the near future. Most of them emphasized this declaration by raising the price of beef 50 cents a hundred pounds to the retailers this morning. This, however, did not cause a corresponding increase to the consumers. The wholesalers are angry about the statements of the packers that the price of meat is going down, saying that it hurt their business, while the retailers are sore because their customers have demanded lower prices for meat, while they have to pay more for it than they did several weeks ago.

Pittsburg, Nov. 16.—The prices of fresh and smoked meats in Pittsburg today began a decline and this evening were from 10 to 20 per cent. lower than yesterday. Live hogs today sold in Pittsburg at $7.85, against $12 a short time ago.

Kansas City, Nov. 16.—Declines of 50 cents a hundred pounds in the prices of sheep, 15 to 25 cents in hogs and 15 to 25 cents in cattle took place at the stockyards today owing to moderately large receipts and general confidence that cheap corn will result in largely increased supplies of fat stock. Buyers for the packing houses were indifferent and bought no more than was needed for current orders.

Tobacco Crop Sold

For A Good Price.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 16.—At a meeting of the sales committees of the American Society of Equity of Hancock, McLean and Ohio counties, held Tuesday evening in this city, a deal was closed by which the pooled crop of 1910 for the three counties was sold to the American Tobacco Company, Imperial and C. E. Martin. The deal involves 7,000,000 pounds, and is one of the largest of the year. Prices are $9 to $4 for leaf and lugs, and $3 for trash.
